

SIDELINE AND SUBSTITUTION QUIZ

1. What are the dimensions of the coaching area? How many coaches are allowed in that area during the game?
2. What is the purpose of the umpire going up the scoring team sideline after the extra point? What is the purpose of the L-LJ waiting and then going up their respective sidelines?
3. After a tackle, play is stopped because the QB is hurt. He says he is OK, but since the game was stopped for him, he must come out for one play. The back up QB comes in and there is a a)false start on offense or b)encroachment on defense. The penalty is accepted in both. Can the starting QB now come back into the game?
4. Each team has 11 players on the field as A1 is calling signals. Either a) A11 or b)B11 becomes confused, thinking his team has 12 players on the field. Before the ball can be snapped, he leaves the field by crossing his opponent's sideline or the endline. Is this a penalty, and if so, is it live ball or dead ball.?
5. B12 notices his team has 12 on the field before A breaks the huddle. A then breaks the huddle and hurries to the line of scrimmage while B12 is running to get off the field on his sideline. The ball is snapped and B12 is still between the hashmarks. He continues to run off the field on his sideline as the play progresses and does not participate. Is this a foul? If so, what is it and is it live or dead ball?
6. Who is responsible for the game kit? When should you go over information after the game? Who is responsible for making sure any travel is marked properly on the game kit?
7. Does the official having a sideline warning throw his flag on the first offense?
8. Each position, go over your pregame duties in class. Make sure we are all on the same page. Benefit games will be starting soon, as will pregame for referees. Referees, pregames have more meaning when you ask position officials to tell you what they are going to do, instead of a monologue.
9. When two teams are coming or leaving thru the same entrance/exit, what should the two side officials do?
